Liaison College Oakville May Schedule

Do you love to cook but are running out of ideas?

Maybe you want to learn the proper way to hold a knife or dice that veg?

Or are you looking for something new to try?

Liaison College in Oakville offers recreational cooking classes to suit all needs and interests.

If you have an idea for a new class or an interest in something particular....let us know! You never know what will show up in our next rec class schedule.

Email your ideas to oakville@liaisoncollege.com

The Next Step

Do you have some experience cooking? Are you comfortable with a knife and in a kitchen? Have you taken our Back to Basics classes?

The Next Step classes are just that...the next level!

Learn all about making yeast breads and fresh pasta making. How about some new skills with advanced breakfast cookery? You can put on a really great brunch for your friends and family instead of a dinner!

Wednesday May 21, 28 and June 4 from 6pm-10pm

For all 3 classes pay only $200 or choose your classes for $80 each.

Call the campus at 905-842-4336 to register.

Remember our classes are small so they do fill up fast!

It's not too late to register for Back to Basics starting Wednesday April 23, 30 and May 7!

Coming in June...

Did you miss Back to Basics last month? Not to worry, come and join our next session of classes in June. Learn how to use that chef knife properly and efficiently. Create dishes from scratch with no cooking experience needed!

This summer...

Do you have a child that loves to cook? Liaison College in Oakville will be offering cooking classes this summer for teens and tweens alike!

Contact us at 905-842-4336 or email oakville@liaisoncollege.com for further details or to register today.
